After outcry, Char Dham yatra rules eased for locals

Kautilya.Singh@timesgroup.com

Dehradun: A day after priests, hoteliers and transpriests, hoteliers and transporters met Uttarakhand CM Pushkar Singh Dhami to express their concern over the mandatory registration of Char Dham pilgrims, the government on Tuesday announced that residents of the state won't need to get themselves registered. Also, offline registration would be made state won't need to get themselves registered. Also, offline registration would be made available for pilgrims coming from outside the state.

After a top-level meeting on Tuesday, Dhami said, with offline registration facilities, those coming from other states would not be denied "darshan" if for some reason they are unable to register themselves online.

Dhami directed police and other authorities concerned to ensure pilgrims are not stopped at different locations for gathering information but only at one point on the route. He asked the authorities to complete all preparations for heyatra, set to begin on April 22, by April 15. The CM directed that crash barriows be cell

SC Order To Be Implemented In Full: Yadav

Swati.Mathur @timesgroup.con

New Delhi: Union labour minister and chairman of EPFO's Central Board of Trustees(CBT) Bhupender Yadav on Tuested as savered the Board that the retirement fund manager is fully committed to implement the November 4, 2022, verdict on higher pension.

His assurances came on the back of concerns flagged by several members of the Board about EPFO subscribers facing procedural complexities in opting for higher pension. "The SC's November 4 order on higher pension has been talked about. This was discussed in detail in the CBT's meeting. The SC judgment's orders in Para 4 will be implement this judgment, necessarianced in full. Prayagraj: A special MP/
MLA court on Tuesday sentenced to life term former SP MLA and MP Atlq Ahmed for kidnapping and torturing
then zila parishad member Umesh Pal in 2006. It, however, acquitted Atlq's brother Khalid Azim and six other accused, saying the prosecution "failed to prove beyond reasonable doubt" their alleged complicity in the conspiracy.
Special judge Dinesh

Dinesh Pasi and Saulat Hanifi, alawyer – Rs 5,009each, besides ordering them to pay Rs 1 lakh each in compensation to Umesh's family Failure to comply would invite an additional jail term of two months.

"The convicts forced him (Umesh) to give a favourable testimony in favour of the accused (in the MLA murder)," the court said. "Hanif had a paper in his hand wherein was written a statement proving Umesh Pal had been forced to retract his testimony and turn hostile in the (MLA murder) case. It all hurts the entire judicial system and shakes the confidence of people in the judicial system." The trio was convicted
